

Remote Access to your Data Files Using Portal

Using any Internet connected computer, you can access your files stored on the server by going to “portal.staffordschools.net”

Use your new network username and password to login. You can upload and download files to the server.

